We publish below, from the Leavenworth Times of the 23d ult., the proceedings of a large and one of the most enthusiastic meetings ever held in Kansas, that our readers may correctly understand the state of the popular feeling in regard to the outrageous feuds attempted by the sanction of the President and his advisers, to impose upon an oppressed and invaded people. Our readers will bear in mind that by virtue of the "Kansas Nebraska Act," the people of the Territories possess the undoubted right, both constitutional and legal, to dispose of, and manage their political affairs in their own way. This Constitution and this law, James Buchanan swore to support and enforce. What language then is strong enough to denounce the conduct of a President who disavowing his oath of office, setting at defiance the rights of the people, and regardless of repeated expressions of the popular will, manifests an unalterable determination to impose upon Kansas a constitution conceived, constructed, promulgated, and about to be enforced by the most outrageous tyranny and fraud. But read for yourselves fellow citizens and then decide which is right—James Buchanan or the Sovereign people of Kansas.

"Free State Meeting."

A large and one of the most enthusiastic meetings ever held in this city, convened at Market Hall, on Saturday evening, to voice their disapprobation of the course pursued by the President in endeavoring to force upon the people of Kansas a constitution so widely that they loath and condemn.

The meeting was called to order by elect George H. Shotwell, Esq., President, E. H. Gruber, Esq., Secretary.

N. Z. Strong, A. M. Clarke, Capt. J. Stockton, Doc. C. Blaser, and James Calhoun, were appointed a committee on resolutions and reported the following, which were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, A crisis now exists in the case of Kansas, that demands an expression of sentiment of her citizens in plain and unequivocal terms:

A Constitution has been formed by a meeting of Delegates elected by a party which is largely in the minority, and against the people;

That Congress has endeavored to be upheld against the legally expressed will of a large majority of our bona fide citizens;

In the election of members of the Legislature and State Officers, under that Constitution, the purity of the Ballot-box has openly violated, and the honest franchise denied; to nullify the will of the majority of the President of the United States, in defrauding our Imperial Magistrate, in treating our rights as citizens of a free country, has prostituted his high official influence; and induced our people to lend them upon a level with the policy of Utah, heaped accusation upon accusation after wrong upon its distorted history, exulted as more in the spiteful enmity than a Chief Magistrate, and in all the influence of his position to all end the Lecompton infamy upon us forever;

Resolved, That we hereby make no appeal for aid to Congress and the President to effect the Lecompton Constitution.

Resolved, That while we deprecate violence, yet stern necessity teaches us that many arrive when forbearance will not be a virtue, and in the event of the seizure of Kansas under the Lecompton constitution, we will then appeal to the sword, and our men strong arms to rid us of impunity: And we pledge ourselves, peace and our fellow citizens through Territory, to stand shoulder to shoulder, we shall be encouraged from his throne fill honorable graves.

Resolved, That we hold our rights higher and above all party interest advantage, and hereby disclaim and abjure, or my intention of making political against the President of the United States as a partisan chief, or against the person elected him to that position.

Resolved, That James Buchanan, President of the United States, in his message giving the Lecompton Constitution to Congress proved himself a traitor to the cause and wishes of the people; a profligate, a slanderer and betrayer of the Kansas Territory, violator of the fundamental principles of our republicanism from birth, and that instead of living in honor and respect of his countrymen, reveal for himself a movement of treachery.

Resolved, That inasmuch as none of the members of the State Legislature have been elevated further the Lecompton Convention level apparent injustice, fraudulent frauds, we hereby warn them attempt to take their seats by virtuous election, at the peril of their lives.

An invitation made to learn J. J. our Post Master in effigy, during sense; and to have him should return to this territory, was carried unanimously, with cheers and shouts of "right!"

The meeting was able and eloquently addressed by Waterman, McChes Clark, Dixon, Holman and others.

On motion a Committee of appointed to wait upon the can the Legislature, elected by fraud Lecompton Constitution, and them a written answer, whether accept a certificate under the returns as published by Calhoun.

The meeting adjourned until evening, when the Committee report. All opposed to the Constitution, are expected to be that meeting and hear the report Committee.

DANIEL PHOENIX.—We wish old friend of the Phoenix has withdrawn, despite of the hard times quite well. The Phoenix is worthy of Bristol, and we hope the thriving town, will not suffer it for the want of that important element.

Quite a violent snow storm commenced about three o'clock on Monday afternoon and continued during the night. The Fall River boat for New York arrived at her wharf at three o'clock on yesterday (Tuesday) morning and proceeded on her passage.

The New York boat due here yesterday morning did not leave that city in consequence of the violence of the storm, and she will probably remain over for her next regular trip, and the boat which left here on Tuesday morning will return with a double mail arriving at her usual hour to-day.

¶ We take pleasure in calling attention to the avertisements of Messrs. H. Parmenter & Son, who have recently stocked the store 101 Thames street with a large supply of Dry and Fancy Goods, and are now prepared to satisfy the pretensions of our community. The gentlemen referred to are both well known to our citizens in the position which they occupy, and their good judgement in the selection of tasteful articles for the supply of their customers, and gentlemanly and accommodating deportment are appreciated by our lady "shoppers."

¶ REV. DR. THEODORE PARKER has proposed the following creed for the Democratic Party, and moves that it be appointed to be read in Churches. "It may be said or sung, as follows:

I believe in the Fugitive Slave Bill.
I believe in the Kansas Nebraska Act.
I believe in the Dred Scott Decision.
I believe in the Lecompton Decision (reversed.) As it is not in the beginning, it is now, and shall be evermore, world without end. Amen."

You must not be surprised if yet another article be added to the Democratic creed and we hear Deacon Cuddeback read off the new Hymn of Despotism with—

"I believe in the African Slave Trade."
Alas! that such sad—such dismal truth should be involved in this forcible and familiar presentation. Alas that men with Go's spirit in them—should "have eyes, see not" how true this is, and turn away shuddering from the crime of supporting it.—Is there no power to stay this iniquity? and do our Representative men scramble, and contend, with high words and low devices for office, when this will be being enacted before them.—Whose will give utterance to these magic words that will stir the heart and conscience of this people, to sweep away this recreant crime?

A WORD TO NORTHERN DEMOCRATS. After reading so many denunciations Northern Democratic editors and politicians as to the ease with which the Lecompton Constitution can be abolished immediately after the admission of Kansas as a State is worth while to see how the Southern supporters (and managers) of the Admission regard the matter. One of these gentlemen, Hon. Horace Maynard of Texas, with the most impressive earnestness writes to the Lecompton Meeting of many Hall:

"But I must protest against the direct and indirect incitement by many, that admitted to the Union, the people of Kansas have nothing to do but to overthrow the Constitution, abolish Slavery and introduce Freedom. A very general idea prevails among the Northern States, that when 'Slavery' and 'Freedom' in the next free election day, come in collision, the latter mightier potency will inevitably prevail. The distinguished author of the Kansas branch bill doubtless entertained the idea, and believed that by the principle that bill all the remaining States would eventually become Free States; that he would be able everywhere where the North as the great apostle and the 'holy evangel of Freedom.'"

But the course of events in Kansas likely to overturn this cherished idea—demonstrate its utter futility, thus diminish all claim to all-apologetic though it is quite probable he may be met with a plea in the pages of the martyrdom. If Kansas is admitted a Slave State, under the Lecompton Constitution, as I fully believe she will be, very sure to continue a Slave State. Large and substantial emigration is from the other Slave States, taking them their slaves; the settlers already whatever may be their present views will find their prejudices against Slavery by contact with it—will see to have been fighting phantoms, that there is no existence except in the heated imaginations and fantasies, and will speedily drop—leave it where their God has left it.

And what man will have been discussing slavery to have been perished there? In the place where it now exists, the people can live and enjoy life, and to some extent—enjoy it. And in the sixteen there is no reason why they should suffer. Fair, then, is the inquiry about which has been stirred up strife.

If the people would rise in their midst the miserable cry of demagogues, whether of the press, the pulpit, or the arena, I should have much to say in a conversation with them.

The appearance of Mahomed Pasha, the Turkish Rear Admiral and his suite, who arrived in the Europa, and are quartered at the St. Nicholas Hotel :
 "The Admiral is the tallest of the party, has a portly appearance and considerable stature in his manner. He is a man of about five feet ten inches in height, rather stoutly made, with broad shoulders and an intelligent countenance. He has a smooth, pleasing face, peculiarly Oriental large dark eyes, and round visage. His cheeks have a tendency to redness and his face is plump. His nose is long and somewhat of the Roman form. His mouth small and lips thin. On his upper lip is a moustache, which appears to have been trimmed with care. His forehead is high, broad and without a wrinkle. His hair, moustach, eyebrows, whiskers, are brown or auburn, and he does not wear his hair longer than it is usually worn by Americans. His dress is in every way remarkable. A loose brown frock overcoat covers a dark cloth frock coat, the side of which is a brown velvet vest and a side shirt. His pants were of black cloth, and his boots rather heavy in material, of the kind commonly known as shoe boots. Around his neck was a mouflon gray woolen cloth, and around his head, Turkish hair, was a red and blue turban. All his apparel was of a very fine material and were it not for the turban nothing extraordinary would be seen about his appearance.
 The other officers, whose names are Major Sir Sah-Suvaran (G. E.) Captain Thessa Otteman-Nyman, and Lieut. S. T. Dick, all naval officers, are all well looking men. They are not so tall as the Admiral's, nor are of them so well looking, but they are nevertheless, very intelligent in their appearance. They were all dressed similarly to the Admiral."
JOHN B. GOSCH.—Mr. Gough is pouring forth his eloquent words in English. Innumerable folk follow him wherever he goes. The Brighton (Eng.) Herald has the following comments upon this distinguished orator in connection with Mr. Spurgeon and others :
 "Constantly enough, we have had Brighton this week the three most powerful speakers of the day. Among these, Mr. B. Gough doubtless takes the lead in point of oratory. Dr. Cumming is a distinguished evangelist, a preacher of the cross, and identified with the pulpit; Gough is in the fullest sense an orator, he is the power of moving man's hearts; a word, of carrying conviction to the souls of his hearers is by an electric shock. He is a man who, in a crisis, might peril the quiet of a nation; justifying change against Socrates of making the appear the better cause. Happily, how his powers are exercised in a cause which certainly no evil, but possibly good, any cause. He has undertaken to battle, single-handed, if need be, against the great curse of the age—a goddess; and has already achieved an amount of good beyond calculation."
SPENSER AND ELIZABETH.—In a folio copy of the "Acacia," printed at Wilton, the seat of the Pembroke present residence of the Hon. Sidney Herbert, have been found two beautiful, interesting relics—a lock of Queen Elizabeth's hair, and an original poem in the hand of Sir Philip Sidney. The hair was given the fair hands of the Queen to her hero. The poet repaid the precious the following lines :
 "Her inward worth all outward show exceeds,
 Easy her merits with regret command;
 Like golden compasses her virtues draw the And in her conduct she was always best.
 When she imparts her thoughts her heart have force,
 And sense and wisdom dwell in sweet accord."
 The date of this exchange of gifts 1574, when the Queen was forty-eight, knight, twenty-nine. Elizabeth's very fine, soft and silvery, with the an of water, its color a fair auburn or brown, without a tinge of red, as traitors assert, but the soft lines are with light, and shine as though p with gold-dust. In every count the sun such hair would be profitable.
 On a recent public occasion in London, a great many Roman Catholics of various nationalities were present. O'Sullivan, our Minister to Portugal, then in Portugal, and for the benefit of our country, did not stand either tongue-tied. They were astonished that a representative of the United States could speak any but his own.
 The Mayor of Baltimore has called attention of the City Council to the of Mr. McManough, that his remains be removed to Baltimore, and a appropriate monument erected. His remains now lie in a neglected graveyard, near the swamp in the his residence at New Orleans. The of Baltimore to his great estate is at $300,000.

MEDICINES

Cholera Cognac Bitters. This truly wonderful scientific compound is recommended by most eminent and learned physicians of Europe and America, and enjoys the reputation of anything similar ever offered. Without doubt, the best, most efficient and erally acknowledged remedy against cholera, dysentery, diarrhoea, and complaints of the stomach in general. The numerous patients who have tried it according to directions have invariably found relief in a very short time, and the best proof of it is, that since a standard remedy was introduced in the army of the Allies in the Crimea, the mortality of the soldiers from cholera and similar diseases has been almost unknown.

is discontinued by over 30 per cent; in the consideration of which, the inventor was greatly aided by the French and English governments with a gold medal, besides the honor of being named "Hail! St. Louis," by the great chemist and inventor, by whose knowledge our armaments are preserved from cholera.

This invaluable preparation is also a remedy for biliousness, indigestion, weakness, and general derangement of the stomach. It, when being taken, it creates appetite, and prevents the heaviness attendant upon eating by persons who are dyspeptic.

In this city, also this remedy has been tried with the most undoubted success, and the undersigned can produce the best testimonials from our most celebrated physicians, as to its efficacy in immediate and complete success, which he is happy at any time to show to any individual.
